VOLUME LXXI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 1, 1865.

NUMBER 155.

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.
OFFICE—No. 104, King street, over French's Book Store.

Letter from General Sherman to Gen. Johnston.
The Richmond Republic of Friday publishes the following letter, never before published:

HQ'S, MILITARY DIVISION OF THE MISSISSIPPI, IN THE FIELD, RALEIGH, N. C., April 27, 1865.

General Johnston, Commanding Confederate Armies, etc., Greensboro'.

GENERAL—I herewith enclose you copies of my Field Orders No. 65, which give General Schofield full and ample powers to carry into effect our convention, and I hope, at your personal interview with General Schofield, you satisfied your mind of his ability and kind disposition toward the inhabitants of N. Carolina.

In addition to the points made at our interview of yesterday, I have further instructed General Schofield to facilitate, what you and I and all good men desire, the return to their homes of the officers and men composing your army—to let you have of his stores ten days' rations for twenty five thousand men. We have abundance of provisions at Morehead City, and if you send trains here they may go down with our trains and return to Greensboro' with the rations specified. Col. Wright did intend to send his construction train up to-day, but did not get up his carpenters in time.

The train, with square timber and carpenters, will go up in the morning, and I think by the morning of the 29th your trains could run down on the road and fall in with ours on the 30th. I can hardly estimate how many animals fit for farm purposes will be "loaned" to the farmers, but enough, I hope, to insure a crop.

I can hardly commit myself how far commerce will be free, but I think the cotton still in the country and the crude turpentine will make money with which to procure supplies.
Gen. Schofield in a few days will be able to arrange all such matters.

I wish you would send the enclosed parcel for General Wilson, as it contains the Orders 65 and 66 and instructions to release all his prisoners on the conditions of our convention.

Now that the war is over, I am willing to risk my person and reputation as heretofore to heal the wounds made by the past war; and I think my feeling is shared by the whole army.
I also think a similar feeling actuates the mass of your army; but there are some unthinking young men who have no sense or experience, that, unless controlled, may embroil their neighbors. If we are forced to deal with them it must be with severity; but I hope they will be managed by the people of the South.

I am, with respect, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM T. SHERMAN,
Major General U. S. A.

Kinloch Falconer, A. A. G.

NORFOLK, VA.—Business of all kinds has been unusually brisk in the city during the past week, despite the intense heat, which rendered exposure at mid day extremely hazardous. The dry goods and fancy stores have been generally thronged with fair customers, and farmers and others from the country have crowded the streets in large numbers, making their necessary purchases of supplies and articles of prime necessity. A large business continues to be done in the fruit trade, and thousands of bushels of peaches, apples and other fruits, with which the market is overstocked, have been exported to the North, forming quite an item of commerce, and furnishing our many steamships with abundant business in the freight line. Watermelons and cantaloupes are going to waste for want of consumers, and afford a cheap, though not very substantial article of food for a large class of our population. It is a real pleasure to pass through our market at early dawn, and witness the rich display of fruits, vegetables, meats, and other luxuries. It is unsurpassed by any other market in the country. We ought to live well, for we have all that heart can desire.
—Norfolk Post.

Hon. A. O. P. Nicholson has written a letter on reconstruction, taking ground in favor of emancipation, but against suffrage, "urging the enfranchisement of the rebels, and the local sovereignty of the States." Mr. N. was formerly a Senator in Congress from Tenn., and editor of the Washington Union.

Mr. W. H. Russell's account of the condition of the Great Eastern, with her full freight and supply of coals on board, is not flattering.
The entire load is full twenty-five thousand ton, and with that she is alarmingly deep in the water, besides presenting the appearance of sagging amidships.
